

Girls stay in to support the cancer cause

By AILSA NORMAN

THE girls can look forward to getting ready for a night of fun with a Girls Night In planned for next Friday night, at the Masonic Hall.

Tamara Greiner, Alecia Thomas and Coral Knight put their heads together to organise the night to raise money for the Cancer Council as it was a cause close to all their hearts.

"I helped to organise a fundraiser for the bushfire appeal earlier in the year," Tamara said.

"And I really wanted to do something for the Cancer Council as it is such a good cause and I try and support it as much as possible and the other two girls were really keen to help."

The Girls Night In Variety Night will have a number of stalls from local party plan business including, UnderCoverWear, Kaszazz scrapbooking and stamping supplies, Princess House line, Chef's Toolbox, Avon, Nutrimetics,

The Body Shop, Stampin' Up/Em TeeBee Stationary by Design, Helga Creations and Creative Memories, with all business donation a percentage of any sales made on the night to the Cancer Council.

"All the people I approached were really keen to get involved, and we have women from around Inverell, one from Yetman and one from Moree coming to display their items at the night," Tamara said.

"It is also a good time to start thinking about Christmas shopping and support a good cause in the process."

"You never know when you might need the Cancer Council's help so we like to give them as much support as we can," Coral said.

Entry to the Girls Night In is $5 and all entry goes directly to the Cancer Council.

The Girls Night In starts at 6.30pm and goes until 9.30pm at the Masonic Hall, Otho St.

GOOD CAUSE: Alecia Thomas, Coral Knight and Tamara Greiner. Alecia and Tamara are holding UnderCoverWear 'Support the Cause' t-shirts. $10 of each t-shirt sold goes directly to the Cancer Council.
