

Don a mask for Hannah's House fund

CASSIE Booth knows what it's like to be without a safe haven.

She hopes by raising money for Ipswich charity Hannah's House she can help provide refuge for other homeless young women.

At 15 Ms Booth found herself in need of emergency accommodation and was offered a room at Hannah's House, a young women's shelter that has been operating in the Ipswich area since 1982.

Her experience has made her passionate about the work of Hannah's House and given her the inspiration to organise a Masquerade Fashion Parade as a fundraiser.

"We went to a fashion swap at Brothers Leagues Club for Hannah's House and I just thought 'wouldn't it be great if we had a parade to go with it?'" Ms Booth said.

The parade and dance party will exhibit the autumn collection of UnderCoverWear.

This collection includes evening wear, casual wear, business attire and some jewellery.

The Masquerade Fashion Parade and dance party will run from 6.30pm until midnight at Brothers Leagues Club, Raceview, on February 27.

Buy tickets at the club or call Cassie Booth on 0419 333 205.

FACE UP TO IT: Cassie Booth, Katrina Booth, Idell Wadley, Rachelle Houston, Heather Cutcheon and Sue McGee are ready for the Masquerade Fashion Parade on February 27.
